DUTCH IRIS...

are unsurpassed as cut flowers. In addition, their bright colors make them first rate garden material especially if planted in groups or beds. The smallest gardens can accommodate these iris, as several bulbs will require so little space. In bloom with the tall bearded iris. Height averages 20 to 26 inches.

NEW DUTCH IRIS SUNBURST
The finest Bronze Dutch Iris we have ever seen. Flowers are large, beautifully proportioned and are unusually brilliant for this color. About 20 inches high. Limited quantity available this fall.

SPURIA Iris

SPURIA AND SIBERIAN IRISES are ideal for landscaping and are generally considered to be most desirable and effective for the perennial border. An established clump is always attractive, even out of bloom. They may be, and indeed should be, left undisturbed for years for maximum beauty. Siberian Iris average 3 to 4 feet in height. Spurias 4 to 6 feet. Absolutely hardy.

SPURIAS bloom later than the Tall Bearded Iris.

IRIS TUBEROSA

Unusual flowers of apple green with velvety purple black blotch on fall. Six inches. We sold more bulbs of Iris Tuberosa than any other bulb iris last year. In fact, we didn't have nearly enough to go around.
3 for 65c; 6 for $1.20 12 for $2.00

BULB (JUNO) IRIS

The Juno Iris are uncommon in American gardens. All are strikingly attractive and distinct from all other irises. Like miniature corn plants, each bearing many flowers in axils of leaves. Most bloom just ahead of the dwarf bearded varieties and range in height from 6 to 12 inches. Colors include yellow, blue and white
3 for $1.75 6 for $3.00 12 for $5.50

RETICULATA IRIS

Brilliant little bulb iris that bloom with the earliest crocus in February and March. Like Dutch Iris in miniature and deliciously scented. Four to 5 inches in height. Best planted in groups and perfect for the rockery.

YEAR-AROUND IRIS BLOOMS

By making your selection from the different types of iris offered here you can actually have colorful blooms every month of the year. Here you will find prize material for the border, rockery, bog or any other location where flowers can grow. With these irises you can have giants with blooms to 1 foot across on 5 foot stems or tiny miniatures practically blooming on the ground.

Also as cut flowers the bulb varieties and spurias are unsurpassed. And best of all these irises are hardy, permanent and with few exceptions easily grown everywhere. The iris is our favorite flower and you'll know why when you see some of these beauties bloom in your own garden.
